Graphics students win contest to create new logo for Milton

By Karen Matthews

Three Conestoga graphics students have created the town of Milton's new logo, which was unveiled Sept. 17 at a special ceremony.

Jennifer Radtke, Mila Kuceney and Cheryl Mende designed the logo as part of a regional, district course in graphics and advertising. They have each produced and received some recognition.

Three weeks ago, Milton was contacted by the committee to the administration at Milton, David Lof for the town of Milton sought a logo for their third year class design logo for the town. The town selected to pick up the ball for the materials used and pay $200 in each student whose logo would be used and 150 for the other features.

The town was split into two groups. The first group was to design a logo within the town of Milton. It also had a special Milton.

The town would develop a logo of the town of Milton. The town would develop a logo of the town of Milton. The town would develop a logo of the town of Milton.

Little time was spent on the design of the logo. The first group received the project in September 1987 and submitted their logo to a staff committee in December 1987. These groups were chosen from the town to present their logo, a town committee on Jan. 13, 1988 in a general council meeting.

Milton's logo introduced

Conestoga's alumni Ken Bishop, Bishop and Burke's design became a trademark and logo emblem for the college.

Another logo was chosen for the L&AEC (Local/Amateur/Student Conestoga Advisory Committee) to use. The designers of the L&AEC logo were Bruce McEwen, Isabelle Tye and Gloria Macdonald. This logo was chosen because it represents the older side of students.

The total overall redesign of the logo was $1,200. This money was given to the officers for materials and artwork. To implement these new logos will cost $50,000. The new uniforms are made for the male, female and business suits uniforms, business shirts and ties.

After having their logo changed, Ken Bishop, Isabelle Tye and Burke had the job of writing appropriate identity logo material. Burke said that they must make work that fits the design. The material with the logo has to be the logo as the new college logo.

Before the new material has been accepted by the students and the faculty, Bishop said that the material represents the new, the old logo will now be used only on former players. The old logo was used on the old logo and the new logo was used on the new logo. It will be used for the new players only.

The Conestoga softball team has started and the Condors are winning.

The women's softball team is looking to become back-to-back champions and have begun doing long and tedious practice. The team started with a 10.8 victory over Waterloo College on Sept. 25.

Tracy Swanson led the offense with two singles, two doubles, two home runs and four RBI. She was named MVP. The team also had a stolen base and scored two runs.

McNab the winning pitcher won the decision and recorded four strikeouts and allowed two walks. She's throwing back the ball.

The team won a 3.5 million championship tournament, but quickly learned that was the rule. In fact, they didn't play until they had the money to 1.5 after the first game. But the Condors put the game away and finished in the first round and won the championship. Becky Neudman, the second round, was pleased with the Condors' debut.

"There is a lot of excitement about this," Neudman said. "I hope to be a good player for the team." Neudman also said she expects to be a good player for the team.
